

Together for Indigenous Families Conference

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the location and dates of the conference?

The Together for Indigenous Families conference will take place at the Scott Center, Omaha NE on June 3rd and 4th 2025.

How do I register for the conference?

You can register for the conference by visiting our website. Simply fill out the registration form, and you're all set!

Will there be a registration fee?

No, there will not be a registration fee.

Who should attend the conference?

Our conference is open to anyone interested in the Indian Child Welfare Act!

Is there parking available at the venue?

Yes, the Scott Center has free parking directly south across Pine Street from the Center's main entrance.

What hotels are near the conference venue?

We've partnered with two hotels for discounted rates. Check our website for a list of recommended hotels, including booking information.

Is there an airport close by?

Yes, the nearest airport is Eppley Airfield.

How do I access the conference agenda or schedule?

The full conference schedule will be available on our website in early May 2025!

How can I submit a proposal to speak at the conference?

We are currently accepting speaker proposals! Please visit our website and go to "Submit a Presentation" page for submission guidelines. The deadline for proposals is March 14, 2025.

Are there breakout sessions during the conference?

Yes, we have several breakout sessions scheduled throughout the conference. Please check the agenda for specific sessions that interest you. Coming Soon!

Will there be keynote speakers?

Yes! There will be two keynote speakers. Check out our website for more details. Coming Soon!

Is there an app or online platform for the conference?

No, there will not be an app or online platform.

Will continuing legal education or CEU's be available?

Yes, CLE and CEU credits will be available for eligible attendees.

How can I share my experience on social media?

Use our hashtag! #TogetherforICWA

Will there be food provided during the conference?

Yes, we will be providing lunch for all attendees both days and dinner on the 3rd. Please let us know if you have any dietary restrictions when you register.

What should I do if I need special accommodations?

The Scott Center is fully handicap accessible.

Is there a dress code?

No, there are no dress code requirements. Please dress appropriate.